Unboxify

HQ: India
INDUSTRY: Logistics, Supply Chain, and Retail

Unboxify is one of India’s first circular platform for e-commerce returns, transforming returned electronics into renewed value. As the official re-commerce partner for Amazon, Flipkart, and Fitbit, it refurbishes and redistributes devices while preventing 8,000 tons of CO₂ emissions. Operating at the intersection of sustainability and technology, Unboxify provides affordable access to high-quality electronics, driving India’s transition toward a transparent and efficient re-commerce ecosystem.
